

Interview Only

Romania Orphan Mission Trip

When? Tuesday, August 1st - Friday, August 11th, 2017
(Dates subject to alter slightly due to flight and travel availability)

Where? Targu Mures, Romania!

What? This will be FBYG's third year spending a week with a group of Romanian orphan kids in a controlled camp setting and share the gospel. With roughly around 40 orphans that have never been to camp, this will undoubtedly be one of the best weeks of their lives. Our group will spend time with the kids, establish lasting relationships, and share Christ's love with them. The ages of the kids are mostly middle school age and younger.

How Much? The total cost of the trip will be roughly $2500. Included in the price of the trip is airfare, emergency travelers insurance, all food, lodging and transportation while in Romania. There will be fundraising opportunities held throughout the Spring to help with these costs. We also encourage everyone to send out support letters so others can prayerfully and financially be a part of your ministry there. Ask Preston for more information about writing support letters.

Other Stuff:

- ~ Each person applying for the trip must meet and interview with Preston individually, in addition to filling out the FBYG Medical Consent Form and Personal Covenant Form.
- ~ Each team member is required to have a valid passport, good for at least one year from the time of travel. Go to http://travel.state.gov/passport/get/get_4855.html for more info.
- ~ Each team member must also have and be up to date on all childhood immunizations.
- ~ There will be meetings held throughout the summer to discuss the details of the trip, conduct while on the trip, and travel details. These meetings are mandatory for team member, and parents are also welcome to attend.

A $300 deposit will be due by Thursday, March 2nd to secure your spot.

FBYG Summer Mission Trip Personal Covenant

As a member of this team, I agree to:

1. Remember that I am representing Jesus Christ as well as First Baptist Church of Durango. I will model Jesus in my conduct, speech, and attitude. I will be positive and encouraging, and refrain from complaining, negative talk, or gossip.
2. The trip leader and the host missionary are the recognized authorities on the trip. I will respect these authorities and their decisions, being supportive and trusting positive intentions. Any defiance toward the trip leader or host missionary is unacceptable.
3. Remember not to go as an expert or with a "fix them" mentality. Instead, I will go as a learner and humble servant, open to other cultures and methods, as well as be open to what God might want to teach me. I will not have an attitude that suggests that we or our ways are superior.
4. Acclimate to the host culture. I will respect the host's cultural view of Christianity recognizing that Christian worship throughout the world is practiced in various cultural forms. I may also have to eat food that is unfamiliar or participate in foreign customs.
5. Follow the trip schedule and participate in all group functions. I know that permission to deviate from scheduled activities or separate from the group for any reason must be obtained from the trip leader.
6. Follow the dress code guidelines and dress appropriately. My appearance is important for both the missionary's reputation and in the way the local people perceive me and Christianity. I may have to submit to certain restrictions regarding appearance, clothing, and body piercing.
7. Be flexible. I know that travel can present numerous unexpected and undesired circumstances, but the rewards of overcoming such circumstances are innumerable. Instead of whining and complaining, I'll be creative and supportive and adopt the attitude, "We don't have problems--we have opportunities."
8. Remember not to be exclusive in my relationships. If my boyfriend/girlfriend is on the team, we will make every effort to interact with all the members of the team. I will refrain from any activity that could be construed as romantic interest in a national or teammate. A public display of affection is not appropriate.
9. Refrain from smoking or tobacco/marijuana of any form, illegal drugs, or alcoholic beverages at all times during this trip. In addition, refrain from new tattoos or piercings.
10. Attend team meetings before the trip as well as any follow-up meetings.
11. Personally thank in writing all financial donors who help contribute to my trip.
12. Remember that I can be sent home at my own expense if I do not adhere to this Covenant or if my Team Leader believes it is in my best interest or in the best interest of the team.

I have read the Mission Trip Covenant above and agree to abide by the trip guidelines and expectations within.
